CHARLOTTE PEART PHOTOGRAPHY

Charlotte Who?

Hello! I'm Charlotte (just in case that wasn't clear already) I'm guessing you would like to know more about the girl behind the camera, so I'll give it my best shot!

I have lived on a farm in the beautiful area of Weardale in County Durham all my life and enjoy being outside working very much, this is the main reason why the vast majority of my artwork and photographs are related to all things rural, so if you can't find me in my studio I'd advise you to look in one of our sheds.

I am at the peak of happiness when I have my camera in my hand, I love capturing natural moments that unfold in front of my eyes! It's those that you want to remember.

Shall we get ready for your wedding?

Thank you so much for considering me as your wedding photographer and a massive congratulations on your engagement! What an exciting time for you both and I can't wait to help you plan your day with ease!

You need your wedding photographer to be someone that you can feel happy spending the whole day with, smiling, laughing, crying and most importantly enjoying every moment as it comes. Not focusing on someone with a camera in your face. I capture every special moment discreetly, laughing and joking with you and your guests. The fact is, I love weddings. Everyone is there for the same reason, to watch two people they love come together, I love the happiness of the day which shows so obviously in my photographs! They do say smiles are infectious!

Now lets talk through each part of your day so we can find the perfect package for you...

Engagement shoots

An engagement session isn't only for the perfect pictures for your save the date cards, it gives you the opportunity to get comfortable with me and my camera. You pick a place that is special to you both and I'll be there.

Bridal Preparation

I arrive a couple of hours early and capture the girls getting ready, hair, makeup, bubbles & giggles! We have fun laughing about what's to come and I capture your excitement and of course a few tiny nerves! The bridal prep is one of my favourite times of the day!

Bridal Party

If the boys are getting ready in the same location, I can spend some of my time with them on the morning too. Last minute preparations like buttonholes, cufflinks and ties. As well as catching their laughs and jokes in the moment.

Ceremony

The ceremony is such a special time of the day and I do my very best to be invisible as well as catching each moment, I make sure to capture your entrance walking down the aisle plus your grooms face as he's watching the love of his life walk towards him. As long as the venue allows, I will then try to get each and every little moment throughout the ceremony keeping my distance of course. It's like I'm not even there!

Family Formals

This is the part of the day that no one looks forward to but its defiantly a must! It's the photos that grandma likes and the ones that always make it to the wedding album. I try to make it as fun and carefree as possible as well as making sure everyone keeps in line and we don't miss anyone out of the groups. Don't worry even a little bit about this part, I'm "nice-bossy" and will keep everyone in check but still laughing! This can take anywhere between 10 minuets to an hour it really depends on the size of your family! Having a list prepared before the day is always handy and makes things go lots quicker.

Couple Photos

My favourite part! Let me get these special photos that show your true personalities and love for each other! We spend about 30-60 mins just us 3 creating beautiful images of yourselves! We can either do this at the venue or somewhere special to you!

Wedding Breakfast & Speeches

How I love a good best man speech or the father of the bride telling everyone how proud he is of his beautiful daughter! Before or after diner they've usually got everyone in stiches or sobbing uncontrollably—they give me the good stuff! Once everyone is settled and starts their dinner you will find me sneaking away... I mean, who wants pictures of Auntie Margret dipping bread in her soup? I use this time to sneak a snack and back up your photos from the day so far!

Reception

This is the part of the day when the party animals arrive! Brand new fresh guests ready to celebrate with you both! We start with the cutting of the cake which leads straight in to the first dance! Make sure to reflect back on your day with your new husband or wife followed by dancing the night away with those party animals I mentioned earlier!

Will I be prepared?

Firstly, I take pride in being hugely prepared. I love being organised and that's no over statement, you should see my office. I try to think of everything before it happens, so if it does, I'm prepared for anything. What if my camera fails? Well that's no problem, I've got a backup! What if my battery runs out? There's no question, it will, because I have too much fun snapping away, but I have countless full batteries to replace it with! Have I got plenty of storage for all the thousands of photos I take? Oh yes, I do. What if it rains? I have a rain kit full of umbrellas, coats and camera covers... plus I'm afraid to tell you, rain and clouds make your photos look UNREAL. If you're not keen on getting wet I always give the venue a good scope before for under cover spots that will look just as magical. I could go on and on but if you do think of any questions big or small, send me an email and I will do my very best to answer them for you.
